Giving Extra Attempts/Time to Canvas Quizzes

Extra time and/or extra attempts for specific students can be granted in Canvas using Moderate This Quiz.

Note that:

- Quiz availability dates still apply when moderating a quiz. If the Until date passes when students are taking the quiz with extended time, the quiz auto-submits even if the student's time extension has not expired.
- If you give a student extra time during an in-process quiz with a set availability date and time, their submission time will display as occurring later than the selected availability time.
- When extra attempts are given via the Moderate Quiz option, Canvas keeps the highest quiz score by default.

There are three scenarios (in-progress exam, before exam and after exam) to give extra attempts/time. Instructors will need to publish the exam to see the Moderate This Quiz feature.

1. In Course Navigation, click the Quizzes link and then open the quiz
2. On the individual quiz page, you can find the Moderate This Quiz on the right side.

3. Click on Moderate This Quiz, you could find how students are doing with this quiz

<input type="checkbox"/>	1	finished in less than a minute	3	1
<input type="checkbox"/> Student, Test	--		1
<input type="checkbox"/>	1	finished in less than a minute	1	0

Give extra attempts/time during an in-process quiz:

- Giving extra attempt:

- Giving extra attempt, you need to click on the little pencil icon appearing the right end of the student
- In the pop-up window, type the number of extra attempts you'd like to give to the student in the Extra Attempts field [1]

Student Extensions ✕

Extensions for Student, Test

Extra Attempts: [1] attempts everyone already gets 1

Extra time on every attempt: minutes
everyone already gets 10 minutes

Quiz attempts whose availability dates have passed will still auto-submit even if the extended time has not expired.

- Giving extra time:

- When students have an in-progress attempt in the quiz, the attempt's remaining time will display next to a clock icon .
- Click on the clock icon  if you want to extend the time on the quiz. You can only extend the time for one current quiz attempt at a time.

<input type="checkbox"/> Johnson, Max	2	Time Up! 	8	3.6666666666666667

- In the pop-up window, Canvas shows you what time the quiz began and what time it is scheduled to end.

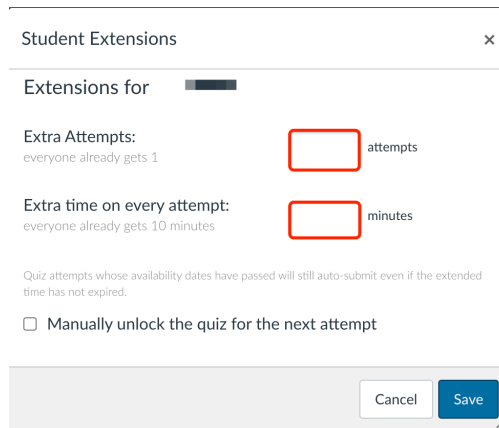

- In the time drop-down menu[2] located after from, choose whether you want to add those minutes to the current time or the current (scheduled) end time.

Note: You can't give extra time to an in-progress exam using the little pencil icon appearing at the right end of the student , even though in the pop-up window of the , there is a field for you to give extra time on every attempt.

Give extra attempts/time before a quiz:

- Giving extra attempt:

- Giving extra attempt, you need to click on the little pencil icon appearing the right end of the student

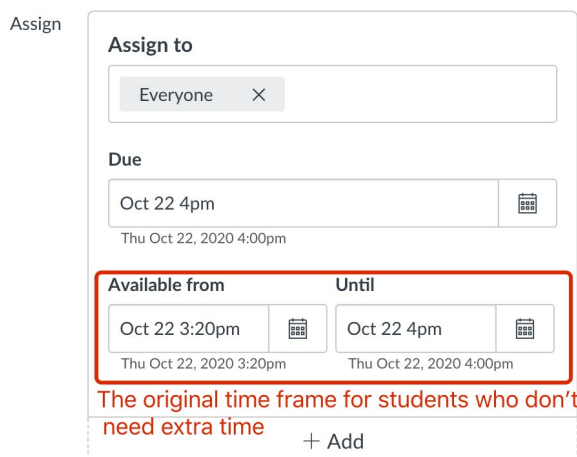

Note: the extra attempts field shows the total extra attempt given to the student. If you already assign an additional attempt for the student, and you want to grant another attempt, you need to enter "2" instead of "1" attempt in the Extra Attempts field.

- Giving extra time:

- Since availability has the highest priority, which means that if the Until date passes when students are taking the quiz with extended time, the quiz auto-submits even if the student's time extension has not expired, we need use extra assign to function to accommodate students' availability/due time frame.
- Go to Edit for the quiz

- Scroll down to the Assign section. You first need to populate the due/availability time frame for students who don't require extra time accommodation.
 - Here the original time frame is set from 3:20pm to 4:00pm.

- After that, click on +Add option to accommodate students that require extra time
